As a sister, wife, mother and now grandmother, one of the first things I learned in life is the importance of fairness and integrity in play, school and work..

Society demands this of its citizens as well. So it is only reasonable that our government take the leading role in the highest standards of fair play for our citizens to mimic.

Fair maps are a cornerstone to voting integrity and honesty. Let's end the gerrymandering and follow the lead of the John Lewis Voting Rights Act to ensure fair maps for every eligible Ohio voter. Fair maps will strengthen democracy unfair maps will lead us down the path of one party minority rule.

I am urging you to use fairness and integrity for all Ohio voters when redrawing districts.
